Panic Prevention 24/7
There may be no such thing as a routine emergency, but when crisis strikes and you’re 1,500 miles from home, things can go from run-of-the-mill bad to all-out panic in a heartbeat. That’s why EIIA has partnered with Seven Corners and developed the EIIA International Travel Program. Whether it’s a personal emergency or a global catastrophe, this full-spectrum service is your life-line, providing broad insurance coverage and critical assistance while you travel abroad on any institution-sponsored trip. A single phone number provides 24/7 access to assistance and medical personnel, regardless of the time zone.

• No special registration required

The program’s travel assistance component offers an invaluable suite of convenient, and potentially critical, services. These services are provided by Seven Corners. They include:

• Evacuation services in the event of a natural disaster or political unrest
• Assistance in replacing a lost credit card, passport, wallet, or documentation

• Assistance in filling a prescription
• Forwarding medical records to a local doctor or hospital
• Aid in arranging a medical evacuation with an approved transporter and medical professional
• AND MORE!
How Do I Register?
You’re already registered! If you are a faculty or staff member, student, alumni or chaparone of a member institution, you’re automatically covered when traveling on institution sponsored trips.

My Family is Traveling with Me. Are They Covered?
Spouses and dependents enjoy the same broad coverage when traveling with you on an institution sponsored trip.

I’d Like to Stay a Little Longer. Am I Still Covered?
Yes. In fact, our built-in unlimited personal sojourn coverage means you can arrive early or stay on for as long as you’d like before or after the institution sponsored event. Either way, you retain your full coverage, with just a few exceptions outlined in the policy. You are even covered if you travel to other countries while on a personal sojourn.
